

Endre Tót

bio

Né en 1937 à Sümeg (Hongrie), vit et travaille à Cologne (Allemagne)

Endre Tót est l'une des figures les plus importantes de la génération néo-avant-gardiste hongroise et une figure emblématique de l'art conceptuel et du Mail art à l'échelle internationale. Tót a développé ses idées conceptuelles avec les séries de Nothingness, Joy ainsi que Rain à partir de 1971. La première manifestation du Nothingness est apparue avec l'usage du caractère Zéro qui s'inscrit sur différents supports et dans différents médias. Les soi-disant « Joys » ou « Gladnesses » de Tót étaient des parodies humoristiques de la culture de l'optimisme qui ont occupé ses séries d'actions et ses œuvres durant de très longues années.

Born in 1937 in Sümeg (Hungria), lives and works in Cologne (Germany)

Tót is one of the most significant figures of the Hungarian neo-avant-garde generation and an emblematic figure of international conceptualism and mail art. Tót's developed his main subjects, Nothingness, Joy, as well as his Rain series from 1971 onwards, all significant works which are signature pieces of his conceptual ideas. The first manifestation of Nothingness as an idea in Tót's art was the use of the Zero character, appearing in various contexts and media. Tót's so-called 'Joys' or 'Gladnesses' were humorous parodies of the culture of optimism, articulated via a long-term series of actions and artworks.

Endre Tót est représenté par la galerie Salle Principale, Paris (France).
