

BEST OF 2023 | DEC. 7, 2023

The Best Movies of 2023, According to John Waters

By John Waters

2. A Prince (Pierre Creton)

Photo: Directors' Fortnight/Directors' Fortnight

You've never heard of this one, but I'd never heard of Super Mario Bros. when it came out either, so there. A most unlikely gay movie about a gerontophilic hot male farmer and his two old-man lovers who drop dead for no apparent reason other than being "embarrassed by youth and beauty." It's dirty in a soil-like way. Dicks turn into mythic creatures; men howl like dogs. Slow, spooky, and poetically fucked up. In other words, perfect.